

Feast of Blessed Marie Rose - October 6

My dear Sisters
I would now like to bless you and mission you anew
To cast the fire of God's love where you may be.

May you nurture this love daily through prayer.
May you fan the flame of prayer into action,
Courage to risk-taking, possibility to reality.

May the fire of our charism
Be tangibly present in your ministry
But especially in your heart
So that you will live it wherever you may be.

I keep you in my heart.
Do not forget my invitation to meet
In the heart of Jesus,
For it is there that I make my dwelling and where,
If you choose, we shall never be parted.

I wish you abounding joy in our God
Your Sister, Marie-Rose

Adapted from the words of Blessed Marie Rose Durocher